

Application instruction for LIMMS internship FY 2026
On "Integration of artificial intelligence in liver computational models for disease analysis"
at SAKAI-NISHIKAWA laboratory, LIMMS/CNRS-IIS,
The University of Tokyo

1. Internship description

- Location: LIMMS/CNRS-IIS (IRL 2820), Hongo Campus, Tokyo, Japan
- Internship title: Integration of artificial intelligence in liver computational models for disease analysis
- Internship duration: 1 to 6 months
- Accommodation support: 70 000 yens / month for maximum 6 months (420 000 yens max. per person)
- Expenses: Airplane tickets and incidental expenses are NOT covered by LIMMS.

Job Duties

- Identification of new AI algorithms and their implementation in liver model
- Programming and Computing liver simulation analysis
- Coupling AI model with Agent Based Liver model
- Develop a Graphical User Interface
- Participate to laboratory activities (meetings, trainings, cleanings, etc...)

Skills and Experience

- AI based machine and deep learning models (TensorFlow et PyTorch)
- Programming in CUDA, Python (CustomTkinter, Plotly, Optuna etc...)
- Informatics science

2. Please send the following items to LIMMS direction <limmsadm@iis.u-tokyo.ac.jp>

1. CV

2. Motivation letter

- Candidates are kindly advised to send LIMMS direction the requested documents with an e-mail subject "internship title" FY2026 followed by the candidate's full name. Sending documents with a different e-mail subject might be at risk of being overlooked.

3. Submission Deadline (Closing date) for applications is 30 November 2025.

- Please note that due to our administrative procedure, we cannot accept your applications AFTER the deadline.
